

Visit of Tellaro, poetry written on the sea

Enjoy the wonderful Borgo and discover the sea flavor with mussels tasting!

Destination of many Italian and foreign artists, Tellaro in the town of Lerici, is an ancient and charming seaside village of Etruscan origin that overlooks the eastern shore of the Gulf of Poets. It is perched on a rocky peninsula sloping down to the sea. On the end of the village is the old church dedicated to St. George, dating from the second half of the sixteenth century, which dominates the square surrounded by houses a collection of the old walled town. Strolling along the streets of this picturesque village is an unforgettable experience.

After the visit of the borgo you will taste mussels and oysters specialities at Lerici mussels farm.
